

Glasgow Girls FC Player Release

Every youth team coach at Glasgow Girls FC has the right to release a youth team player under the age of 16 for various reason, these reasons must be put in writing on “The Player Release Form” which can be printed off below.

The form when completed must be handed to a member of the Glasgow Girls FC committee and a meeting with a committee member/s and the coach would be arranged to discuss, including options.

If the outcome is for the player to be released from the club a meeting with the players parent/guardian/coach/and a committee member will be arranged and the reasons for release would be explained.
